Dr Macarenhas now requests that the period of three months' leave on half pay may be treated as Study leave, as he was then studying f. the DPH + DTM examinations. In view of the fact that Govt granted him an extension of Study leave on full pay by one year which however he did not avail himself f. his prayer may perhaps be granted. The Pl. 10. Regarding the 2nd proviso objected to by the Finance Branch on the ground that it is opposed to art 43 of the Civil Service Regulations which provides that an officer on 'long leave' has no claim to substantive promotion till he returns from leave. The 'long leave' contemplated in this article is apparently furlough, leave on private affairs & which is come within the purview of the Civil Service Regulations and it does not, I think, cover a special leave of the kind granted to Mr Macnamara which does not come within the scope of the Service Regulations and during which he was allowed to draw full pay just as he would do if he had been on duty. In these circumstances I think that it will not be opposed to the spirit of the Service Regn to give effect to Mr Macnamara's promotion from 1st March 1911 though he was on leave at that time

Fuial Nole of the Secnd Comm aller

Mr Mascarenhas, Assistant Surgeon, was granted 3 months' privilege leave combined with 3 months' leave on private affairs in July 1911, to enable him to prosecute medical Studies in England. Subsequently in Feb 1912 he was granted Study leave on full pay for nine months in continuation He was relieved of his duties on the 19th Aug 1911 and returned to duty from England on the 23rd Sept 1912. He requests that for the 3 months' leave on private affairs (on half pay) may be treated as Study leave on full pay. This is deemed Equitable and the Financial Dept has no objection against granting this prayer.

2. Mr Mascarenhas further prays that his promotion from the 5th to the 4th grade of Assistant Surgeons may be allowed to take effect from the 1st March 1912 instead of from the date on which he returned to duty from his Study leave. He was promoted to the 4th class from the 1st March 1912 by Govt. Notification No 8536, dated the 16th May 1912; but on that date he was on study leave and the Comptroller, ~~accepted~~ relying on art 43 of the Mysore Service Regulations, intimated to him that he could draw the pay of the IIIrd Class only from the date of his return to duty. The Financial Department pressed the same objection but on the 10th instant the Financial Secretary acquiesced in the decision of the Council to the effect that this prayer of Mr Mascarenhas may also be allowed. The special feature of his case, taking it on both the scope of art 43 of Mysore Service Regs, is that he had been on study leave with full allowances.

SUBJECT.

Recommending that leave on half pay granted to Mr. J. B. Mascarenhas be treated on full pay and he be granted extra pay on his promotion from 1st March 1912.

Letter No.101 dated 30th September 1912 from Assistant Surgeon Mr. J.V.Mascarenhas, I.S.Regiment, Bangalore, to the Senior Surgeon, M.G

I have the honor to state that in your office No. 4794-7 dated 22/23rd May 12, I was informed that I have been promoted from 5th to 4th grade of Assistant Surgeon from 1st March 1912 and in order No.5639-41 Med.91-11-2 dated 13th February 12, I was granted study leave on full pay for 9 months in continuation of the 6 months combined leave sanctioned to me from 20th August 1911. While in London I was paid only Rs 120 per mensem and this order was issued to Messrs Coutts and Co., prior to my promotion to 4th grade was gazetted. I have now been informed by the Comptroller that I can draw the extra Rs 30/- of my promotion, only from the date I joined duty on return from study leave and this ruling I have been informed is in accordance with the Civil Service Regulations. As the leave that was sanctioned to me was study leave and I was all the while engaged in studies for D.P.H. I request that you will be pleased to recommend to the Government that I may be given the balance of my pay viz,- Rs 30/- per mensem from 1st March to 23rd September 1912.

Further I beg to state that I left Bangalore for England on 6 months combined leave and for the latter three months of this period I was given only half pay. I left Bangalore on the night of 20th August 1911 and arrived at Liverpool on 13th September and joined the School of Tropical Medicine there on 15th September and having passed the examination for Diploma in Tropical Medicine at the end of December and at the same time having gone through the required course of Practical Sanitation for D.P.H., I came to London in January 1912 and joined the University College D.P.H. class and I was thus able to finish the examination for D.T.M. and D.P.H. in less than 10 months. Whereas in the usual course one would take fully 13 months; for the studies for D.T.M. take fully 13 weeks and the D.P.H. 9 months including the examination period. I therefore request that you will kindly take into your kind consideration the fact that I have finished both the examinations in a period of less than 10 months and also the fact that I have returned and reported myself on 16th September 1912, though the period of study leave sanctioned for me extended up to 21st November, and that you will be pleased to recommend to the Government that the other 3 months for which I have been given only half pay be converted into study leave on full pay.
